

Useful CIR Resources

Alc – A resource for checking existing translations of words/phrases

<http://www.alc.co.jp/>

Kantango – great for quick word lookup and kanji name combinations

<http://www.kantango.com/>

Weblio – Great all-purpose dictionary, thesaurus which shows word usage in addition to meaning

<http://ejje.weblio.jp/>

Jim Breem – Dictionary and kanji lookup by radical

<http://www.edrdg.org/cgi-bin/wwwjdic/wwwjdic?1C>

Wanikani – For practicing kanji and learning by radical

<https://www.wanikani.com/>

Anki – Spaced repetition flash card program and website

<http://ankisrs.net/>

Jisho – Multi-function online dictionary

<http://jisho.org/>

Google – For Japanese Writing Guides, Shukkatsu Websites, seasonal greetings etc.

Imiwa – Great iOS app for Japanese learners

Rikaichan – Firefox plugin which adds furigana on top of all kanji

CIR Forums – For help, advice, networking, event ideas, etc.

Local Bookstore – For education books of all levels

Japanese for CIR's Book – Great resource with lots of practice in specific situations

CLAIR Language Courses – Advanced Course, Translation/Interpretation Course

TV – Watch the news, entertainment shows (ex. Shoten), morning shows. Turn on subtitles.