

THE FIRST ANNUAL
JAPANESE HERITAGE DAY
AT THE NEW YORK METS

Friday AUGUST 27th 2010
Houston Astros vs. New York Mets at Citi Field
7:10pm, Pre-game events begin at 6:30pm

The NY METS have invited the Japanese American and Japanese communities to join in their Heritage Day events. Japanese pitchers Takahashi Hisanori and Igarashi Ryota make the Mets one of the few MLB teams with more than two Japanese players.

Traditional Taiko Drumming by SOH DAIKO will be featured as the Pre-Game on-field entertainment, special Mets Spirit Awards ceremony and a Scoreboard Welcome.

Participating organizations include (in formation) US-Japan Council (USJC), Japanese American Association of New York (JAA), Japanese American and Japanese in America (JAJA), and the National Japanese American Memorial Foundation. Corporate sponsorship by Two Twelve Associates.

TICKETS

INDIVIDUAL DISCOUNTED TICKETS are available for online purchase at: Mets.com/Japanese
Sign in ID: JAPANESE
Password: METS

Pepsi Porch @ $41/ea
In-field Reserved @ $26/ea

GROUP TICKETS of 25 or more:

Call John Hazelett 718.559.3046

Includes Discounted Group ticket rates

Scoreboard welcome for your group

Tickets must be purchased by August 5th.

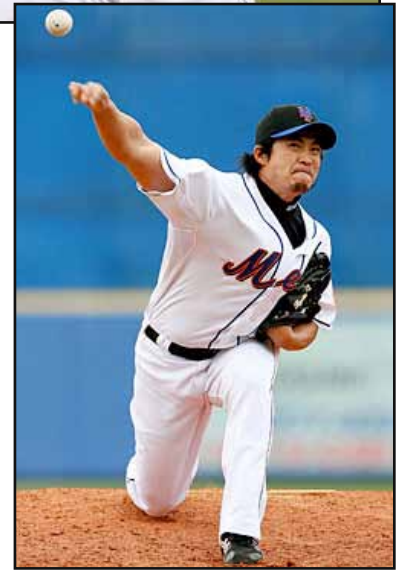

PHOTO BY CORKY LEE

Please SPREAD THE WORD to friends, family and colleagues – we want to make this a memorable 2010 event. We welcome sponsors who support our community to make Japanese Heritage Night an even more enriching event. Look for our upcoming Facebook page with up-to-date information.

Let's have fun with a show of our pride and support for baseball and our Japanese Community!